An Outline for the Daily Office:

- Our Father in Heaven - Reflect & rest a moment on our relationship with God.
- Hallowed be thy name - Worship.
- Confess the Apostle's Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen

- Read The selected Psalm
- Your Kingdom come, Your will be done - intercede - Ask God to move in us, and in the world
- Read the Old Testament
- Give us this day our daily bread : Ask for aid for your needs
- Read the New Testament passage
- Forgive Us or trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. ask God to search our heart, to reveal our offence. The General Confession is a great launching point:

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and apart from your grace, there is no health in us. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare all those who confess their faults. Restore all those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to all people in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may now live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

- Lead us, not into temptation, but deliver us from Evil.- seek God's direction for the day
- For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the Glory Forever and ever, Amen.

What is the Daily Office?

The daily office is an ancient Christian practice that standardized prayer for all believers. It has gone through many iterations over the hundreds of years. This is a contemporary attempt to capture the heart of the office - that we all pray together, even if we pray separate from each other, we are engaging with the same scriptures, as a community. The current Common Book of Prayer is a rigorous reading plan, journeying through all 150 psalms each month, and the New Testament twice a year. It also includes large portions of the apocrypha, and omits several lengthy portions of the Old Testament. It's chiefly for this reason we will follow this modified reading plan.

Instead of the incredibly rich (and somewhat complicated) pattern of prayers the Book of Common Prayer holds, we can follow an expanded Lord's Prayer, with the readings from the reverse taking us through the whole Bible, each year. Actually, it will take us through the book of Psalms several times, with 2 psalms a day. This plan will almost take us through the whole New Testament twice - Revelation being the only NT book we read once a year.

If one finds this plan too rigorous, please feel free to follow the Morning readings one year, and the Evening readings another. Lastly, I was greatly encouraged with this thought - the Daily Office is not homework that must be completed, but a conversation starter that can last us our lifetime - if you fall off pace, just get back in the saddle and carry on. We don't play catch up, we strive to learn to walk with Christ without stumbling. I find the structure and regularity of the Daily Office readies my heart and mind to engage with God more throughout the day.

yours in Christ, Pastor Brock
